

Mission Statement

At Pacific Crest Sporthorse, our mission is to provide the highest quality medical care available for our equine patients, and support to their owners in all areas of their horse's lives. We aim to be a support center for the Sporthorse community in the Pacific Northwest and to become an integral member of the health care team for our performance horse patients and their riders.

Vision

Pacific Crest Sporthorse is a small but high quality practice in a peaceful, pastoral setting. Our veterinarians and staff strive to know all of our clients personally, and provide support in every aspect of their relationships with their horses.

Values

Patients and clients

- Always offer the best
- Go above and beyond to help clients provide what their horses require.
- Refer to specialists whenever needed, but maintain communication and follow-through to support our clients.
- Work with and support clients when making difficult decisions.

Workplace

- Work in a friendly, happy environment
- Support fellow employees
- Enjoy every day

Community

- Always take the most ethical and honest path both in our veterinary practice and business relationships
- Strive to help educate horse public.
- Support and be a presence at competitive events where our patients participate.
- Protect the health and welfare of horses.
